

I've been a professional psychic for 40 years. Most of the positive feedback I get comes via directly talking with my clients and email from them. The following are a few of the reviews about my services that clients have posted on the Internet.

He is a very sweet man who took his time with me and explained everything in a way that was easy to understand. Just had the reading so too early to tell if what he told me will come to pass but he was able to pick up on some things that he couldn't have known about me other than through true psychic ability.

He went over the 10 minutes that I paid for but still continued to talk to me about my reading. Obviously he is not in it for the money. He must really care about what he is doing and saying.

He also seems like a really cool guy to hang out with and drink a beer with!!!

I think the most accurate description I can give of Gary is that he is the perfect combination of true psychic and intuitive abilities combined with a ton of life and Lithomancy reading experience. He is as genuine and kindhearted of a guy as they come and his readings are 100% spot on. He tells you exactly what you need to know and cuts straight past all the bullshit. He jumped straight into my reading without asking me any personal questions or trying to pick up on my personality type and he was spot on. I think that is a true sign of a genuine psychic. Furthermore, I just received my reading today but I am confident in everything he told me to expect in the coming weeks because of how well he connected dots that I was barely able to connect for myself and how profoundly they struck a cord inside my spirit. One thing I can say for certain is that you will not leave a session with Gary confused about yourself or where you're going.

If you've ever thought about getting a reading done or if you're on the fence about Gary, I can honestly say that he is as real and accurate of a psychic as they come. You have nothing to fear or worry about as he will only reveal future potentials, of which you have full control over. Getting a reading done by Gary is a great way to better understand who you are, where you're going and ultimately, this knowledge alone gives you all of the power you need to fully empower yourself in order to control your life and destiny.

Being a sensitive empath myself, having worked in the "healing" profession for many years I have to say, as a skeptic, that Gary Wimmer is one of the most authentic knowledgeable seers around. His lithomancy stone readings are just incredibly accurate. He knows how to verbally tell your tale in such florid detail, a situation not unlike a non-fiction writer with a blank piece of paper, and a gift for storytelling.

I would highly recommend Gary for lithomancy readings as well as his oracle readings using playing cards. In any situation Gary is a clear channel, honest reader and sincere human being.

A true oracle. I received a reading of the ancient divination art of lithomancy. Gary is a natural at this. I'm confident he's been perfecting this for many lifetimes due to his staggering accuracy. When I stumbled upon his website I felt an immediate resonance. His endearing quality of humbleness is accompanied by authenticity, professionalism and a kind spirit. You won't be disappointed.

I had a lithomancy reading over the phone with Gary after finding his site online and ordering his lithomancy book. I was very impressed! He was so accurate from the get-go i was smiling the whole time because he just kept getting things so bang on, plus he has a wonderfully vibrant personality! After the reading you are left with a sense of upliftment that carries through your day. He is certainly an authentic reader and I would highly recommend him... well worth his reasonable prices! :)

I connected with Gary at the Austin Hollistic Healing Arts Fair a couple of Saturdays ago - initially drawn to him by his awesome energy; and feeling something within his energy that was similar to something I experienced a long time ago. When I found out about his near-death experience; that made an immediate connection. He explained his work with Lithomancy which piqued my interest. I decided to schedule a in-person reading with him for 60 minutes.

Like many others before me; I was floored with his readings - he confirmed my thoughts as I embarked on a pilgrimage being a great investment and decision on what I thought was a risky life decision; told me some of the values and spiritual aspirations that I wanted to bring into reality of my life; and basically gave me the highest purpose and reading I could have ever wanted. He knew right away that I was not intersted in certain details; but for some really high level, heavy hitting matters; and that I will achieve my goals; and that all the other things - abundance, love, teaching will come rushing in.

Gary does NOT leave things vague at all leaving you open to "social engineering" tactics to trick you into proving the information yourself. He gets right to the heart of the matter with precision and detail; speaking on the spiritual level. He also goes truly out of his way to make sure you are satisfied with the information - in fact he asked me this three times.

He also shows that he is really savvy with the readings and offers to record the session for later review; and will e-mail you the link to download the file later on. He makes use of technology to accomplish this with ease and grace; and follows the sponsoring thoughts of empowerment to inform me how he does his work; what he will be doing; and is very open to sharing his craft to achieve his sponsoring thought.

I would highly recommend Gary as a person to go to have a reading - you leave feeling empowered, energetic, buoyantly optimistic; and having spent an awesome time with a truly groovy guy.

I was originally drawn to get a reading by Gary hearing of his experience after a car accident... I plan to read his book to learn more about what he went through in that experience. The reading was accurate and resonated with what is happening in my life now, as well as the direction I am headed in. Also, he's a great guy - awesome upbeat energy and very easy to connect with. I highly recommend his services!

Gary Wlmmmer is a true gem. I emailed Gary regarding a custody hearing I have scheduled next week. I indicated in my email that I didn't really need a full 30 min. reading, I really only had 1 question that needed addressed. The obvious... will I win? Gary called me the next day and we chatted for about 20 mins during which time he never once mentioned money or being reimbursed for his time. He was kind, funny, very direct and very helpful. His insight and advice was stellar and in the end, although he did not predict the end result of my court battle, he did remind me that I am empowered to positively affect the outcome of my situation and I need only step into that power with the certainty that I will prevail. Thank you Gary for your time, and your wonderful words of wisdom. I always take care of those who take care of me, so expect to receive some calls requesting appointments :)

I've known Gary for some time now and have received readings from him especially during some very critical times and situations. His manner of providing his insights is pretty much second to none. He gives it straight forward in a way that is empowering and easy to understand. I definitely recommend him as a colleague. In addition, he cares about what he does; and because of that, the quality of the reading is outstanding.

I hail from California, where getting a reading or spiritual guidance is as easy to find as breakfast tacos are here in Austin!

For someone who has experienced this quite a bit, I have to say I was taken off guard when within the first sentence he hit the nail squarely on the head. Exactly. Right. Down to the details.

More importantly, however, his readings are geared toward help and healing. I highly recommend him.

My Lithomacy Reading with Gary Wimmer
Posted on July 14, 2011 by Kaleah LaRoche

... I interviewed Gary Wimmer sometime last year and he gave me a reading in exchange for the interview. He does a unique method called Lithomacy which uses stones dropped inside a circle to form a map for the next ninety days.

When I thought about who I would call for a reading, Gary came to mind. I gave him a call right away and he answered the phone, so I was able to set up an appointment that day...

It was interesting how the stones gave me away. Gary immediately started talking about the relationship and how I have gone through quite a lot of change recently. "NO kidding!" But he painted this change in such a positive light that it really helped me to look forward to my future. He really saw that this was a positive change and would bring great things into my life. It was as if I had to let go of everything and leap into the void of nothingness in order to go through the huge transformation and rebirth that I was currently experiencing in my life. I was going the next level and I couldn't bring anything of my past with me. I had to let it all go!

Gary explained to me how I invested a lot of really good energy into my relationship and that good energy would come back to me really quickly. It was as if I had accumulated a lot of positive karma in this relationship and I would get to experience the rewards of it in my future. It was as if all the love I had given would be coming back to me, but not necessarily through the person I had given it to. He wasn't in a place to truly receive what I had to offer and so the universe moved him out of my life and opened my life up so that I could experience greater love...

Gary also said that this process I am going through will really take my business to the next level. He said sometimes we have to experience things first hand to understand them at a deep enough level to truly help others... Now I am going through this accelerated path of awakening...

The most helpful thing I was told was that my recovery from the loss of my marriage would be rapid as well. He saw me in a place of full empowerment within two months and said most of the feelings I was processing through right now would be cleared out in a matter of weeks. I didn't have to do the long grief process that often extended into years because I would see that this was all divine right action. It was all for my highest good!

When the reading was over I felt positive and hopeful about my future. I was truly ready to get on with my life. I was ready to embrace the lessons that were on my plate, let go of what was no longer serving me in my life and move into a life full of love, openness, honesty, passion, compassion, self expression and ultimately self realization...

If you are ready to have a glimpse into your next ninety days, I would highly recommend getting a reading from Gary. He can do the reading easily over the phone and his prices are very reasonable.
